Greetings,

As August is coming to a close, and we are preparing for the slow mellow days of September, I'm struck by my own child-like wonder. I realize that Archangel Metatron has been telling me that I must never lose the wide-eyed enthusiasm I was born into this world with. Remember when you were a child - you visualized, dreamed, and knew in your heart - there was not anything you could not do.

Metatron wants you to know he understands that your day-in and day-out routine can wear very thin. It is all too easy, when we get frustrated, to go with ego, letting our dreams evaporate. Metatron, along with Archangel Zadkiel, have given me an affirmation to share with you.

"I know for sure that I am wrapped in the wings of your unconditional love. The gems of Love, Life, and Joy are diamonds right before me, within my reach. Archangel Metatron and Zadkiel always keep me wrapped in the joy and wonder of a child, living to the highest good."

SPREADING ANGEL WINGS

Archangel Gabriel is urging me to encourage everyone to reach out, communicate, and share yourselves! We all have that friend, previous co-worker, acquaintance, or family member who has more or less fallen off our spiritual radar. I implore each and every one of you reading this to pick up the phone, send a card, write a letter, and reconnect with one person in the next 30 days. Gabriel does insist that emailing and texting are not allowed.

Gabriel tells me that he knows for sure that what the world needs now is LOVE. Communicating, sharing yourself, making that extra effort to connect, is the greatest love of all. He would like everyone, from now to September's end, to speak to one new person daily. He does not mean the Starbuck's Barista! It is about totally, completely, giving yourself and letting others into your world. I would love for everyone who takes the Gabriel Challenge to stay in touch with me this month; to let me know about any exciting new avenues, as well as friendships, that have come your way.

In closing, I would like to thank each and every one of you for sharing this journey with me. In celebration of the journey, and as my way of thanking the angels, I will be giving a workshop September 12, 2009 in honor of the Fourth Annual International Angel Day. Part of the proceeds from the workshop will be donated to St. Jude's Children's Hospital and the Manna Food Center.

Remember to live your inner child, always giving of yourself in love, the greatest gift of all.

Angel Blessings,

Susan Lynne
