

Blessings from Susan Lynne

January 2009

HAPPY BIRTHDAY to all!

Celebrate 2009

let me know if you are interested in a particular event. I am building my 2009 calendar and welcome your input!

Greetings, Happy Birthday to one and all!

Yes, the New Year Season is our spirit's birthday. This time is one of renewal, rebirth, and re-energizing. This is not just your and my spirit's birthday, this month, on January 23rd, is the one year anniversary of "Blessings from Susan Lynne". I thank each and everyone who has been with me on this amazing journey. I know for sure that there is still a lot of work ahead of us.

This holiday season I came across a very fun book by author Dane Sherwood, "2,001 Things To Do Before You Die". Instead of concentrating on what we need to do, have not done, or feel we will never achieve, why not send out to the Universe some of the fantasies we strive to achieve. Here are a few samplings from the book.

- Track down someone who influenced you
- Build and launch a model rocket
- Learn Morse Code
- Eat Only The Green M & M's
- Fall In Love On Public Transportation

I urge each and everyone of you to make your own list of 2,001 Things To Do Before You Die. Look at the list daily and check off each one you achieve. It is all about enjoying and absorbing the moment.

Angel Blessings,
Susan Lynne

CHINESE NEW YEAR - THE OX

January 26 welcomes in the Chinese New Year. This is the year of the Ox and a "2" year in numerology. The Ox brings in a wonderfully productive year. In a "2" year there is a lot of concentration on job, career, and partnerships in business; as well as romantic nature.

Patience is the key to 2009. This year is one of great success and can bear great fruit, but you must do your part. Some say the motto of The Year of the Ox is "no work, no pay". This is not a year to put things off or be lazy. You need to keep your nose to the grind stone and to take pleasure from those pursuits. The Ox is a very strong, sturdy work type animal and in this year you will be able to handle all the obstacles thrown in your way. Remember, it is all about keeping focused and plugging away -- keeping your eye on the prize!

Most major conflicts that will occur in an Ox year are those concerning communications. People's mincing words, refusing to give in, semantic misunderstandings. This can be avoided if you remember the most important word for this year PATIENCE.

If you are born in the Year of The Ox, you are steady, trustworthy, possibly introverted BUT can be head strong and never afraid to speak up. You do not rely on luck. You are a person with a plan, never one to have stray strings dangling. Let's all benefit from the discipline and structure of this wonderful (I know for sure) year of abundance.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY FROM GABRIEL

As I close the newsletter this month, I must give you a message from Archangel Gabriel, the angel of New Year's Day. He wishes each and everyone of us a very Happy Birthday! Gabriel wants us to make each and every day count. Make sure you truly live life through every single beautiful moment.

Susan Lynne

301.906.2203 susanlynn@mediumlink.com